

Notice of 45-Day Study Cost Exemption for Aggregate Study Withdrawals

Beginning October 16, 2013 and extending through November 29, 2013, any Eligible Customer may withdraw existing transmission service requests from any active Aggregate Facilities Study at no further cost, provided the Eligible Customer has not executed an Aggregate Facilities Study Completion Agreement.

This one-time exemption does not apply to study costs that have already been incurred, but have not yet been billed.

Eligible Customers wishing to invoke this provision should:

- (1) Withdraw the request on OASIS; and
- (2) Notify SPP of the withdrawal by email to ATSS@spp.org.

Any requests withdrawn after November 29, 2013 will be subject to the study cost exemption provisions of Section 19.4 and 32.4 of the SPP Tariff.

Please direct questions to ATSS@spp.org.
