

GET INVOLVED AT SPP.ORG/WEST

Visit SPP.org/west for information related to SPP’s portfolio of Western Energy Services, including Markets+, RTO West, Western Resource Adequacy Program, Western Energy Imbalance Service Market, and Western Reliability Coordination.

These instructions outline common tasks. If you need help, email communication@spp.org.

IF YOU WANT TO ...	THEN DO THIS	HELPFUL LINKS
Create a new account to register for meetings and subscribe to email lists	Visit SPP.org and click “Create Account” at the top right of the screen to provide your contact information, email subscription preferences, etc. SPP staff will approve and activate your account within 24 hours.	SPP.org/account/create-account
Find information related to a stakeholder group	Follow the link at right to a list of Western Energy Services stakeholder groups. Group pages include info about their scope of work, members, upcoming meetings, and meeting materials.	SPP.org/western-stakeholder-groups/
Register for a meeting	Once you’ve created an account, register for events on the SPP.org calendar , or use links on stakeholder group pages. Once registered, you’ll receive attendance instructions.	SPP.org/western-services/western-events/
Receive email notices about a topic or group	SPP maintains email distribution lists called Exploders related to stakeholder groups, topics, and services. To receive emails about a particular subject, subscribe to the appropriate exploder on your account page.	SPP.org/account/edit-account
Read announcements regarding SPP’s Western Energy Services	Find announcements related to SPP’s Western Energy Services in the SPP.org newsroom.	SPP.org/western-newsroom/press-releases/
Participate in a stakeholder meeting	Once registered for an event, watch your email for instructions related to in- person and virtual attendance. SPP uses WebEx Webinars for most virtual meetings. Webinar help is available on WebEx.com.	help.webex.com/en-us/article/8l0y08/Join-a-webinar