

2024 ITP Market Economic Model (MEM) Benchmarking - Pass 1

- Action Required

SPP requests stakeholders review data of the 2024 ITP MEM Benchmarking milestone. The data provided is based on the 2024 ITP MEM – Pass 1 Update 2, posted on July 6, 2023 with the following updates:

- 10.3s
 - Evergy and Missouri River Energy Services (MRES)
 - SPP evaluated and approved as no impact changes
 - Will present at next TWG and ESWG meetings as informational only
 - Southwestern Public Service Company (SPS)
 - Approved at July ESWG/TWG joint meeting for inclusion into the 2024 ITP Assessment
- MISO Regional Directional Transfer

Stakeholders should review and provide feedback on data items included in the 2024 ITP MEM Benchmarking Pass 1 PowerPoint. Specifically, assess the model behavior compared to the provided operational, Energy Information Administration (EIA), and 2023 ITP Year 2 MEM data. SPP provided the 2024 ITP MEM Benchmarking results based on a constrained model (Book of Flowgates). The Book of Flowgates include SPP's 2022 top 10 flowgates (temporary and permanent) and the persistent operational needs according to 2024 ITP study scope, Section 4.

SPP reviewed the 2024 ITP MEM Benchmarking results and noticed the following items that will need further review:

- SPS and UMZ
 - Locational Marginal Price
 - Adjusted Production Cost

Information for additional benchmarks will be included in the final MEM Benchmarking posting.

SPP is not requesting changes to the 2024 ITP Year 2 MEM input data. Any submitted changes will be considered under Section 10.3 of the ITP Manual.

- Entities Required to Provide Feedback:

All interested stakeholders; primarily, ESWG members

- Due Date and Method of Submittal

Please provide feedback by Monday, July 31, 2023, via the SPP Request Management System \(RMS\), using the "Submit Information" Request Template, "Integrated Transmission Planning (ITP)" Subtype 1, and "Data Submission" Subtype 2.

- Notes

- SPP plans to incorporate the 2022 LMP data in the final posting for the 2024 ITP MEM Benchmarking milestone. SPP is currently working on compile the data for stakeholders' review.
